

Fort Recovery
Archaeological Festival for Families

Sunday, October 4th 2009

11 AM to 6 PM

FORT RECOVERY STATE MUSEUM

1 Fort Site Street, 45846

419-375-4384

Sponsored by:

The Blue Jacket Chapter of the Archaeological Society of Ohio

Fort Recovery State Museum*

With support from

Ball State University Archaeologists

Pack 99 Boy Scouts of Fort Recovery

FLINT KNAPPERS; ATLATL DEMONSTRATIONS; FACE PAINTING; ARCHAEOLOGY ACTIVITIES FOR THE KIDS (mock excavations, hand pump lithic drill, clay cord making, touch and feel artifact displays, etc.) Boy Scouts demonstrating skills and working on Archaeology Merit Badges.

COLLECTORS WILL DISPLAY THEIR ARTIFACT COLLECTIONS

From 12:00 to 4:00

Videos and 5 different Speakers

- | | |
|---------------------------|--|
| 12:00 – Brian Vastano | - The Glacial Kame Culture/Artifacts |
| 1:00 – Chris Keller | - Education of, and Work of, Archaeologists |
| 2:00 – Tony Deregnaucourt | - Archaeology of Fort Recovery |
| 3:00 – Bill Pickard | - Fort Pickawillany |
| 4:00 – Ken Sowards | - The History and Artifacts of Fort Loramie |

All Museum Sites Open – Pioneer Activities in Log Cabins

Admission to state museum half price just for this day.*